Sergio is a native of Sao Paulo, Brazil. It was there he became interested in orchids as a young boy. He and his father were encouraged by Heitor Gloeden of Brazil to grow orchids. Sergio and his father became partners in orchid cultivation.

Sergio moved to Ohio in 1989. After college he moved to Northern California, and continued growing and cultivating orchids. His favorites include Cattleya, Laelia, Sophronitis, Oncidium, Paphiopedilum, and Vanda.

At our January meeting he will talk to us about Cattleya intermedia.
